

NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Home Depot Canada puts down roots in Vaughan, Ontario just in time for spring

Toronto, April 30, 2015 – Today, The Home Depot® Canada opened its 182nd store inspiring Vaughan, Ontario residents with everything they need to make their house a home from the indoors out, including a 17,000 square foot garden center.

“This is a busy time of year for homeowners, and our new Vaughan store is ready for spring with beautiful outdoor living products, décor, and home improvement services. Most importantly, our experienced orange apron associates provide the know-how that will help customers complete projects and enjoy the results of their hard work,” said Mark Getty, regional vice president, Eastern Canada, The Home Depot Canada.

The new store at 55 Cityview Blvd provides 117,000 square feet of products and services, and the expertise of nearly 200 Home Depot Canada orange apron associates. The store is the go-to home improvement retailer for the new home owner, or customers refreshing an older home, with a wide selection of products to personalize a space including window coverings, paint, décor, and our first-in-Canada flooring showroom.

The Vaughan store has exclusive services for Pros to ensure each visit makes the best use of their time, including dedicated parking, easy check-out and consult desks, and various delivery options to suit each Pro’s needs. Furthering our commitment to ensure all customers can find and purchase products easily whether in-store or online, the Vaughan store features a dedicated pick-up center for orders made online, and access to extended product offerings on HomeDepot.ca with kiosks throughout the store.

At today’s Grand Opening, The Home Depot Canada Foundation was honoured to present the Vaughan Community with a donation of $5,000 to the ETA Vaughan Women’s Shelter. Since 2009, The Home Depot Canada Foundation has invested more than $13 million to support housing initiatives that are integral to successful communities.

The Vaughan Home Depot is open, and its associates are excited to forge new relationships in this diverse and vibrant community.
