

Makita Announces Voluntary Recall of Makita Chainsaw

Hazard: The automatic chain brake does not easily engage when the saw kicks back possibly exposing the user to contact with the chain while it is still moving, posing a laceration hazard. There are no reports of injury.

The affected product was sold at The Home Depot Canada from April 2002 to June 2018 and is listed in the chart below:

Class	Brand	The Home Depot Article Number	Model Number	Date of Manufacture (DOM)
73cc	Makita	1000762108	EA7300PRFE	Before June 1, 2018

Consumers should immediately stop using the affected chainsaws, and take the saw to the nearest Makita Canada Factory Service Centre to have the saw examined and repaired free of charge. (See website for locations: <https://www.makita.ca/index2.php?event=servicecentre&event=servicecentre>)

For more information, consumers may contact Makita at 416-807-5982 (Ron Patching) or by email k.marumoto@makita.ca (Ken Marumoto).
