Your new statement: clear & concise!

Clear: Statements show you how much you've spent, how much you owe, and your available credit.

Concise: The information is "bucketed" into sections that make it simple to find what you're looking for.

Account Number / Contact Information

Summary of Account Activity
Outlines account activity, including payments, credits, fees and interest charged

Transactions
Lists your activity over the past month including purchases, payments and credits, fees and interest for the billing period

Remit Coupon
Identifies payment due date, new balance, past due amount, minimum payment due and a section to write in the amount of your payment

Credit Plan Summary
Detailed breakdown of regular revolving and promotional transactions and corresponding balances as of the statement closing date

Payment Information
Shows your new balance, minimum payment due and Payment Due Date

Statement Period
The purchases or charges on this statement cover the period known as the Statement Period

How to Avoid Interest on Revolving and Deferred Promotional Balances
Shows how to avoid paying interest on your current statement balance

How to Avoid Interest on Deferred Promotional Balances
This message will appear for each new and existing deferred promotion which has an outstanding balance on your statement

Additional How to Avoid Deferred Interest reminder

Interest Charge Calculation
Includes your Annual Percentage Rate (APR) and designates the balance it applies to

SAMPLE

For illustration purposes only.

THDCAN CONS EN 11/14